A REALLY BIG BANK

Dear Ms. Samantha Hogwings:

Even though I am a very important man, running the Big Bank of Ojito, I have taken time out of my busy schedule to read "F. F. PORKAFLAPPER, Superhero Pig of the skies.".

Not many young people understand the importance of flying pigs in the world today. Ms. Hogwings, I applaud your contribution to this cause and have decided to fund this important venture.

I have sent a check to the printers on your behalf for the full total of One Million Dollars.

Yours in Hog Heaven,

Mr. Frank Bacon
President

We got the bling so you can do your thing

Dear Ms. Blue Sweetbaby Smoothmouth:

We were pleased to receive your request to create a custom nose ring for you. As indicated in your order, you will supply the diamond.

I understand it will be very big.

You may wish to begin exercising your nose muscles if that is the case.

We look forward to receipt of the diamond so that we can begin production.

Sincerely,

Mr. Razzle Dazzle

World - Famous Brain Surgeon

Dear Ms. Harmony Tutti-Frutti:

While I cannot guarantee success of the radical new operation you propose, but if anyone can transplant your brain into the individual you call Bickford, it is I.

I understand Bickford is a sock puppet. You may wish to consider transplantation of your legs as well.

The cost of my services, hospital, and lots and lots of post-operative therapy will be

One Million Dollars.

I am leaving for a much-needed rest at Big Ole Annabelleland next week. The only opening I have is this Friday, so I need your check as soon as possible. I understand Big Ole Annabelleland is quite expensive.

Sincerely,

Dr. Mindy Cranium

FLASHNCASH CASINO

Las Vegas, Nevada

Mr./Ms. Bickford,

We here at the FlashNCash Casino are pleased you have accepted our offer of $1,000,000 to be our headliner. Rarely have we seen such talent in one sock.

I see by your acceptance letter that you are now a solo act. Or will be shortly.

Fond Regards for the money we shall both make,

Extremely Mad Scientists, Inc.

making weird things forever

Dear Ms. April Kicksalot,

Thank you for contacting us regarding your fusion project. Even now our full staff are madly (ha-ha) working on the creation of a new material, Rubbaletha, which we think will combine the elasticity of rubber with the style of leather, thus making a ball which people will like to see bounce.

We also offer our services to test out your new game of "Socketball" on our resident human ~~captives~~ volunteers. We love to test out things on our ~~captives~~ volunteers.

This will cost a bit. We figure about

Girl Awarded Prize

Birdie Nester has been awarded $1,000,000 by the Up and At 'Em Birdwatchers Society of Ojito for her extraordinary discovery of the only remaining Red and Yellow Annoying Repeater Parrot, which everyone thought was extinct.

In receiving the award for Finding Things We Thought Were Extinct, Ms. Nester was characteristically modest.

"Really, he was under my nose the whole time,," she said, "Literally."

A moment later, Birdie Junior, the only remaining Red and Yellow Annoying Repeater Parrot added, "Really, he was under my nose the whole time. Literally."

Ms. Nester's speech to the Up and At 'Em Birdwatchers Society at the Gala Dinner in her honor was, however, cut short.

"When it kept repeating everything Ms. Nester said," said Mr. Swifty Hawk, the Society's President., "We took a vote on whether the Red and Yellow Repeater should become extinct immediately. It passed unanimously.

Members then advanced on the bird at which time Ms. Nestor

Geologist's report

Although diamond mines are not common in Northern New Mexico, we have determined that the diamond you gave us for examination is indeed of the highest quality. Based on your eyewitness account of where the stone was found, we did a thorough and completely confidential investigation of the site, as you requested.

We did indeed find the mine, much to the astonishment of the prospector we hired to investigate. We have not seen or heard from him since, but before he left he did tell us that he'd marked the spot. His notes say only that he hid the co-ordinates, and, we regret to say, the specimen ring you gave us for testing. At least we think that's what his notes say. All his field notes are written as country-western song lyrics, which we enclose with this report.

We understand you hope to trick the owner into selling you her property soon, so if anyone figures out you hired us, we suggest you hide the notes and don't tell anyone where they are unless they hogtie you to a chair and tickle you.

Let us know if you succeed. We have a backhoe we could throw in for a cut in the profits.
